FINAL ORDER

¶1 The appellant has filed a petition for review of the initial decision, which dismissed his nonselection appeal under the Veterans Employment Opportunities Act of 1998 (VEOA) for lack of jurisdiction. On petition for review, the appellant argues that he filed a VEOA complaint with the Department of Labor

¹ A nonprecedential order is one that the Board has determined does not add significantly to the body of MSPB case law. Parties may cite nonprecedential orders, but such orders have no precedential value; the Board and administrative judges are not required to follow or distinguish them in any future decisions. In contrast, a precedential decision issued as an Opinion and Order has been identified by the Board as significantly contributing to the Board's case law. See 5 C.F.R. § 1201.117\(c\).

(DOL) and its lack of response constitutes exhaustion of his administrative remedy. Generally, we grant petitions such as this one only in the following circumstances: the initial decision contains erroneous findings of material fact; the initial decision is based on an erroneous interpretation of statute or regulation or the erroneous application of the law to the facts of the case; the administrative judge's rulings during either the course of the appeal or the initial decision were not consistent with required procedures or involved an abuse of discretion, and the resulting error affected the outcome of the case; or new and material evidence or legal argument is available that, despite the petitioner's due diligence, was not available when the record closed. Title 5 of the Code of Federal Regulations, section 1201.115 (5 C.F.R. § 1201.115). After fully considering the filings in this appeal, we conclude that the petitioner has not established any basis under section 1201.115 for granting the petition for review. Therefore, we DENY the petition for review and AFFIRM the initial decision, which is now the Board's final decision. 5 C.F.R. § 1201.113\(b\).

¶2 On review, the appellant argues that he filed a complaint with DOL and did not receive a response, and thus he exhausted his remedy with DOL. Petition for Review (PFR) File, Tab 1 at 5.² However, while 60 days have now elapsed since the appellant's July 12, 2017 submission to DOL, the appellant has not alleged that he provided written notification to the Secretary of Labor of his intent to file a Board appeal nor does he submit evidence of such notification.

² The cases that contemplate such a scenario are distinguishable from the instant facts because here there is no allegation that DOL affirmatively took action to advise the appellant that DOL did not have jurisdiction over his complaint, directed him to file his appeal directly with the Board, or refused to address his complaint due to a separate pending Board appeal. See Morris v. Department of the Army, 113 M.S.P.R. 304, ¶ 10 (2010) (finding the appellant exhausted the DOL complaint process when DOL refused to address his VEOA complaint and advised him that the complaint did not fall within its jurisdiction); Thompson v. Department of the Army, 112 M.S.P.R. 153, ¶ 14 (2009) (noting that if the appellant had attempted to file a VEOA complaint with DOL and had been told DOL did not handle such complaints and directed the appellant to file his VEOA complaint directly to the Board, the Board may find the appellant had satisfied the DOL exhaustion requirement); Alegre v. Department of the Navy, 118 M.S.P.R. 424, ¶ 14 (2012) (finding the appellant satisfied the DOL exhaustion requirement when she presented evidence that DOL refused to address her VEOA complaint due to a separate pending Board appeal). Here, the appellant instead asserts that DOL never responded to his VEOA complaint. PFR File, Tab 1 at 5.

¶3 Thus, the appellant's assertion that DOL failed to respond to his complaint is insufficient to establish that he has provided written notification to the Secretary of his intent to bring a Board appeal as required. See 5 U.S.C. § 3330a\(d\)\(2\)-\(3\); Styslinger v. Department of the Army, 105 M.S.P.R. 223, ¶ 15 (2007) (noting that a complainant's notification to DOL of his intent to file a Board appeal serves as a means of notifying the Secretary that DOL should cease any further effort to investigate or resolve his complaint), overruled on other grounds by Oram v. Department of the Navy, 2022 MSPB 30, ¶ 18. Because the appellant has not shown that he exhausted his administrative remedies with DOL under 5 U.S.C. § 3330a\(d\)\(2\), he has not established Board jurisdiction over his VEOA appeal. Cf. Becker v. Department of Veterans Affairs, 112 M.S.P.R. 507, ¶ 10 (2009) (finding that a letter from DOL submitted by the appellant with his petition for review showed he exhausted his remedies with DOL, and thus the Board had jurisdiction over his VEOA appeal).

5 U.S.C. § 7703\(b\)\(2\); see Perry v. Merit Systems Protection Board, 582 U.S. ____ , 137 S.Ct. 1975 (2017). If you have a representative in this case, and your representative receives this decision before you do, then you must file with the district court no later than 30 calendar days after your representative receives this decision. If the action involves a claim of discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or a disabling condition, you may be entitled to representation by a court-appointed lawyer and to waiver of any requirement of prepayment of fees, costs, or other security. See 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5\(f\) and 29 U.S.C. § 794a.
